Visitor's
Bureau

The screenshot shows the website for the Pittsboro-Siler City Convention & Visitors Bureau. The header features the bureau's logo, which includes a stylized green leaf and orange fish, and the text "Pittsboro-Siler City CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU". Navigation links for "About Us", "Maps + Directions", "Press Room", and "Contact" are in the top right. A dark blue navigation bar contains links for "STAY", "SEE", "EAT", "SHOP", "SERVICES", and "EVENTS", along with a search box labeled "Search this Site". The main content area is split: the left side shows a large photo of a sailboat race on a lake, and the right side features a map of North Carolina with Chatham County highlighted in white, titled "CHATHAM COUNTY NC". Below the map, a text block describes local attractions: "Whether you visit for the day or stay overnight, you'll find plentiful sights and activities to appeal to a variety of ages and diverse interests. Explore Jordan Lake, Fearrington Village, delightful B&Bs, vibrant blooms, challenging golf, food tours, wineries and wildlife sanctuary tours. Revel in endless opportunities for birding, biking, dining, hiking, shopping and more." At the bottom, there are three promotional boxes: "VIEW OUR INTERACTIVE BROCHURE" with a brochure image, a photo of a tiger in a natural setting, a photo of several beer bottles, and a photo of a golf course.
